The Chief Justice said:

"It is with deep grief that I announce the passing on Saturday last of our brother, Mr. Justice Willis Van Devanter, who was in active service as an Associate Justice of this Court for upwards of twenty-six years. Learned in the law, he brought to this bench the special qualifications of a wide judicial experience and his service here was of exceptional distinction. He was a man of sterling character and of rare sagacity, a wise counselor and a faithful friend.

"The funeral services will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Church of the Epiphany. The members of the Court will be in attendance.

"At the conclusion of the arguments in the case now being heard and in a companion case, in which counsel have come from a distance, the Court will rise and in tribute to the memory of our late brother will stand adjourned until Wednesday noon."

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

No. 9, ORIGINAL.—OCTOBER TERM, 1940.

State of Arkansas,
vs.
State of Tennessee.

DECREE.

[March 17, 1941.]

On consideration of the report filed herein on February 24, 1941, by W. H. Green and O. W. Gauss, the Commissioners appointed herein by decree of this Court entered October 14, 1940 (311 U. S. 1), to locate and mark on the ground the boundary between the State of Arkansas and the State of Tennessee, at the points designated in said decree; and the State of Arkansas and the State of Tennessee having stipulated by counsel that they have no exceptions and no objections to the said report, and they having applied to this Court to terminate the time within which exceptions or objections to said report may be filed:

It is now adjudged, ordered, and decreed as follows:

1. The time within which exceptions or objections to said report may be filed is hereby terminated;

2. The said report is in all respects confirmed;

3. The boundary line marked and located on the ground as set forth by the report and accompanying map is established and declared to be the true boundary between the State of Arkansas and the State of Tennessee, as determined by the decree of this Court of October 14, 1940;

4. As it appears that the Commissioners have completed their work in conformity with the decree of this Court of October 14, 1940, they are hereby discharged, and their fees and expenses in the amounts stated in the report are approved;

5. The Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit to the Chief Magistrates of the States of Arkansas and Tennessee copies of this decree, duly authenticated under the seal of this Court, together with copies of the said report of the Commissioners and of the accompanying map;

6. The costs in this cause shall be borne and paid in equal parts by the States of Arkansas and Tennessee.

Appellant,

268 vs.

The United States of America, Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, Columbia Oil & Gasoline Corporation, et al.

- - - -

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company,

Appellant,

269 vs.

The United States of America, Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, Columbia Oil & Gasoline Corporation, et al.

IT IS ORDERED that in the sentence beginning on line 6 of page 2 of the opinion handed down March 3, 1941, after the words "These acts stifled" and before the word "Panhandle's" there be inserted the words ", so it was claimed,".

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the paragraph beginning on page 4 of the opinion be stricken from the opinion and that the following paragraph be added in its place:

"A final contention in support of the order remains. It is based on two prior denials of motions by Mokan to intervene. Treating Mokan's motions as made on its own behalf on the score of its ownership of more than forty per cent of Panhandle's stock, the district court denied the motions. Appeals from these denials were dismissed by the circuit court of appeals, 108 F. (2d) 614, and we denied certiorari, 309 U.S. 687. The denials are now urged as res judicata. But they were a rejection of Mokan's attempt to intervene in its own behalf. In neither instance was the relief denied deemed a mode of enforcing Panhandle's rights under Sections IV and V of the Decree. The earlier denials involved different legal claims from that now asserted, and therefore are no bar to the present proceeding."

The Chief Justice said:

"With profound sorrow I announce the death last evening of Louis Dembitz Brandeis. For nearly twenty-three years he was in active service as an Associate Justice of this Court, and from February 13, 1939, when he exercised his right of retirement, and until his death, he was a retired Justice of this Court.

"Learned in the law, with wide experience in the practice of his profession, he brought to the service of the Court and of his country rare sagacity and wisdom, prophetic vision, and an influence which derived power from the integrity of his character and his ardent attachment to the highest interests of the Court as the implement of government under a written constitution. His death brings to a close a career of high distinction and a life of tireless devotion to the public good.

"The funeral service will be private. There will be a public memorial service at a time and place to be later announced.

"As a mark of respect to Justice Brandeis' memory the Court will adjourn without transacting further business.

"The papers upon all motions now ready for submission may be filed with the Clerk and will receive the attention of the Court.

"To enable the Court to consider in conference and make appropriate disposition of the great number of petitions for certiorari and other applications which have been filed during the Summer, the recess of the Court will continue until Monday, October 13. The Court will now adjourn."

- - - - - - - - - -

Proclamation being made the Court is adjourned until Monday, October 13, next, at 12 o'clock.

Pursuant to adjournment the Court met at The Supreme Court Building.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Present: The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Roberts, Mr. Justice Black, Mr. Justice Reed, Mr. Justice Frankfurter, Mr. Justice Douglas, Mr. Justice Murphy, Mr. Justice Byrnes, and Mr. Justice Jackson.

Joseph B. Quinn, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Robert C. Bassett, of Green Bay, Wis.; Stephen Alfred Wilson, of New York City, Willard John Stone, Jr., of Pasadena, Calif.; Samuel E. Neel, of Kansas City, Mo.; Dick Hoblit Woods, of Kansas City, Mo.; Philip Donald DeHoff, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Charles Sumner Moore, of Atlantic City, N. J.; and Ray A. Heimburger, of Sandusky, Ohio, were admitted to practice.

Mr. Attorney General Biddle addressed the Court, as follows:

MAY IT PLEASE THE COURT:

Members of the Bar of this Court assembled this morning in respectful and affectionate tribute to the memory of Mr. Justice Van Devanter. A Minute and resolution were adopted which I have the honor to present, with the request that they be embodied in the permanent records of the Court. The Minute is as follows:

"WILLIS VAN DEVANTER was of the stuff of which pioneers are made. When he died his country lost a virile and devoted son.

The story of his eventful life is a record of faithful and distinguished public service. Nevertheless when the long chronicle has been read the man himself seems even more impressive than the things he did. The simple fact is that he stood forth a man among men.

He was a son of the Hoosier State. Born in Marion on April 17, 1859, his self-development began in the public schools. DePauw University claimed him as the most distinguished of its alumni. In the law school of Cincinnati University he prepared for admission to the bar. After a few years of practice in his home town, during which he served as Deputy County Prosecutor, he answered the call of the West and was among those who helped organize the Territory of Wyoming into Statehood. After having served under appointment by President Harrison as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory, he became Chief Justice of the new State. President McKinley made him an Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States attached to the Department of the Interior. President Theodore Roosevelt commissioned him a Circuit Judge in the Eighth Circuit.

THIS CAUSE came on to be heard on the transcript of the record from the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, and was argued by counsel.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

OCTOBER TERM, 1941.

ORDER.

It is ordered that paragraph 1 of Rule 12 of the Rules of this Court be amended so as to read as follows:

"1. Upon the presentation of a petition for the allowance of an appeal to this court, from any court, to any judge or justice empowered by law to allow it, there shall be presented by the applicant a separate typewritten statement particularly disclosing the basis upon which it is contended that this court has jurisdiction upon appeal to review the judgment or decree in question. The statement shall refer distinctly (a) to the statutory provision believed to sustain the jurisdiction, (b) to the statute of the state, or statute or treaty of the United States, the validity of which is involved (giving the volume and page where the statute or treaty may be found in the official edition), setting it out verbatim or appropriately summarizing its pertinent provisions; and (c) to the date of judgment or decree sought to be reviewed and the date upon which the application for appeal is presented.

"The statement shall show that the nature of the case and the rulings of the court were such as to bring the case within the jurisdictional provisions relied on and shall cite the cases believed to sustain jurisdiction. It shall also include a statement of the grounds upon which it is contended that the questions involved are substantial (McArthur v. United States, 315 U. S. —; Zucht v. King, 260 U. S. 174, 176-77).

"If the appeal is from a state court, the statements shall in addition specify the stage in the proceedings in the court of first instance and in the appellate court, at which, and the manner in which, the federal questions sought to be reviewed were raised; the method of raising them (e. g., by a pleading, by request to charge and exceptions, by assignment of error); and the way in which they were passed upon by the court; with such pertinent quotations of specific portions of the record, or summary thereof, with specific reference to the places in the record where the matter appears (e. g., ruling on exception, portion of the court's charge and exception thereto, assignment of error) as will support the assertion that the rulings of the court were of a nature to bring the case within the statutory provision believed to confer jurisdiction on this court. The provisions of this paragraph, with appropriate record page references, must be complied with when review of a state court judgment is sought by petition for writ of certiorari. (See Rule 38, par. 2.)
